Pieces of Bread and Bag of Roots Found in Well-Aycock Does Not Want to be Delegate.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., June 20.—Editor J. W. Balley, of the Biblical Recorder, who as chairman of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League, wired each of the four candidates for the Democratic nomination candidates for the pending, for an expression of their position in the temperance fight in this State, has received satisfactory replies. 11- had regarded Stedman as rather hostile to the autisation movement, but finds his letter very satisfactory.

THE REPLIES.

Satisfactory.

THE REPLIES.

Mr. elem says. "I am not in any way supported by the North Carolina Liquor Dealers' Association. My record as a friend of temperance is well known. I will support all reasonable and just temperance legislation calculated to improve the moral condition of the State, and at the same time preserve the ineigrity of the Democratio party."

Stedman says. "I believe in and practice temperance and support all reasonable measures in its interest. I will stand by all temperance legislation adopted by my party, and if elected Governor, I will execute the temperance law and all other laws, which are now or may hereafter be enacted and placed upon the statute books. If the Liquor Dealers' Association is supporting any of the candidates for Governor I do not know it; it is not supporting me. If elected Governor I will enter upon the discharge of the duties of that high office absolutely untrammeled and free from entangling alliances of all kinds."

Davidson says. "I am surprised at your moultry. My legislative and public record."

trammeled and free from entangling alliances of all kinds."

Davidson says: "I am surprised at your inquiry. My legislative and public record since 1878, including the last General Assembly, was open to you. I never think one way and act another."

Turner, in his reply, says: "I favor temperance and laws to encourage solicity. I know nothing about reports monitoned in your telegram."

Here is the telegram of inquiry, in ansolve to which the above answers were noted. Mr. Butley's query: "There is a persistent report that the North Carolina surr dealets' are supporting one of the reliance for Governor. Will you wire me your position as to temperance? Will you wire me your position as to temperance? Will you wire the interest of temperance?—(Signed) if W. Ralley, Chairman Anti-Saloon leggue." League." GOVERNOR'S DENIAL.

Colomel P. M. Pearsall, private secretary to Governor Ayeock, gave out the statement this morning that the Governor wishes to emphatically deny the persistent reports that he is a candidate for election as a delegate to the National Convention. That he is not now and has never been a candidate for that honor, and, in fact, could not go to St. Louis were he made a delegate. And that he has always told those who mentioned the matter to him that he did not desire the election.

TO POISON FAMILY.

An attempt to poison the well and kill the family of Mr. Will Cooley, a crosperous farmer, a few miles from Raleigh, was discovered Sunday. Pieces of bread with some evidently poisoned substance garend on it were found in the well. girend on it were found in the well, and a small sack of roots and heres with a rock for a slitter, were found lodged on the wall hear the water. A negro tenant, who had been dismissed for neglecting his crops, is suspected. He refused to drink water from the well before the suspicious substances were found. The State chemist is making an analysis of the bag of roots and bread.

John C. Drewry, one of the managers John C. Drewry, one of the managers of Stedman's campaign for the Demoeratic nomination for Governor, says that with two counties—Ashe and Washington—missing, Stedman has 511 votes, Glenn 491. Davidson 121 and Turveer 'S. 'This gives 1,221 votes pledged out of a total of 1,244 in the convention. It will require 622 votes to nominate in the convention. THE JUNIOR ORDER.

Short Talks To Advertisers.

No. 21

You have heard men say. "Oh, I never read the advertisements in a newspaper." Those men probably are conscientious but they are mistaken. They may not intend to read the advertisements but they do just the same if they read the paper. It is just as impossible to control the eye as it is the ear. Can a man thut out certain sounds and open his ears to others? When man can do that, then can be uit out of his sight certain lines in his morning paper and let his eye rest only on those which he seeks. Have your Ad, in the paper and all men will read it sooner or letter.
